Update on the NF's Race Campaign

THE NF's national Race campaign got off to a flying start at the end of July with an afternoon conference and seminar on the subject in central London. 70 activists from all over mainland Britain attended, taking an active part in small discussion groups as well as listening to the formal speeches. Good contingents from Scotland, Cymru and the North of England were particularly welcome.

The meeting was chaired by Directorate member Dave Gobell. Graham Williamson opened the proceedings by explaining how such a national campaign is intended to compliment intensive local work designed to sink community roots. Nick Griffin then spoke on the principles of mutual respect, and the need for racialists of all colours to co-operate in the struggle to preserve the separate identities of their peoples against the race-mixing pressures of global capitalism, Marxist dogma and Zionism.

Directorate member Mark Alder explained precisely what was expected of NFN Sales units during the campaign and representatives of local units collected thousands of campaign leaflets, posters, stickers and supplies of NF News to use to publicize the Nationalist message in the following weeks.

GUEST SPEAKER

Those present were all inspired to make a really big effort by two stimulating and interesting speeches. The first by Matt Malone, a guest speaker from the American National Democratic Front. Matt spoke on the growing wave of racialist feeling among American Indians, Hispanics and Blacks, and on the efforts being made by White racialists to contact and work with them.

"Race-mixing destroys all races," he told his first ever British audience, "so it is only natural for healthy people of all races to oppose it. By forcing us to live together, the big corporations have created big profits, but they have also created racial hatred. We want to end that hatred – by separating the races so that we can all run our own affairs and live in peace.

NEW CHAIRMAN

The closing speech was made by Derek Holland, after Nick Griffin announced that he was stepping down as Directorate chairman after over a year in that position, and told the meeting that Mr Holland, a 30 year old history graduate, had agreed to take over the position, at least until the AGM in October.

An enthusiastic audience then heard Derek give a moving speech with the central theme being the memory of Jan Palach, the young Czech patriot who so loved his land that he burnt himself to death in protest against the Soviet tanks which crushed his people in 1968.

At the end of a challenging and informative meeting, all those present returned to their own areas ready to get working on the biggest recruitment and public relations campaign which the National Front has run for some years.

C-60 cassette tapes of the meeting, featuring the speeches referred to above, are available for £3.30 incl p&p from Defendant Tapes,* P O Box 5, Huntingdon, Hunts.

JEWISH TELEGRAPH

NF on race

THE National Front in Leeds has sent the JEWISH TELEGRAPH a copy of its paper with an announcement of a "campaign to inform the local populace of the party's position on the issue of race".

The NF says that it "believes that every race has the right to live in peace and friendship in its own national environment."

This includes support for the Palestinians' rights "to live once again in their own nation".

In block letters in a press release, the NF proclaims "we do not hate any race or creed and deplore any person or organisation that encourages racism."

The local NF committee man who is the signatory of the release, a Mr E W Davidson, says that "the new leadership of the NF has already held talks with the political leaders of several ethnic groups and is encouraging local units to open discussions with local black and Asian organisations in order to work together to denounce the racist bigotry espoused by certain Tory politicians and the tabloid press."

NFN has active sales units in most areas of the country

They are all working hard for Britain while most people find it easier to do nothing. What about you? Are you prepared to work to save your land and people? Then contact your local unit today.

The Repression File SPECIAL

This report gives further details of the case of the two Romford Community Action activists who were arrested and had their homes raided during their local anti-mugging campaign. Although the bare details were published last issue, the full story provides a particularly 'good' example of the sort of pressures being unjustly employed against our activists.

The two activists faced four charges of Criminal Damage. One defendant was unemployed, the other had his employer informed by the police of the charges brought against him. His employer subsequently notified him that dismissal may result due to his involvement with the NF and his appearance in court.

Three appeals for Legal Aid were rejected, so after two adjournments the two finally fought the case themselves with no legal representation.

At the start of the case, the police prosecution dropped one of the charges. Another two charges were dismissed as the police had no evidence to support them.

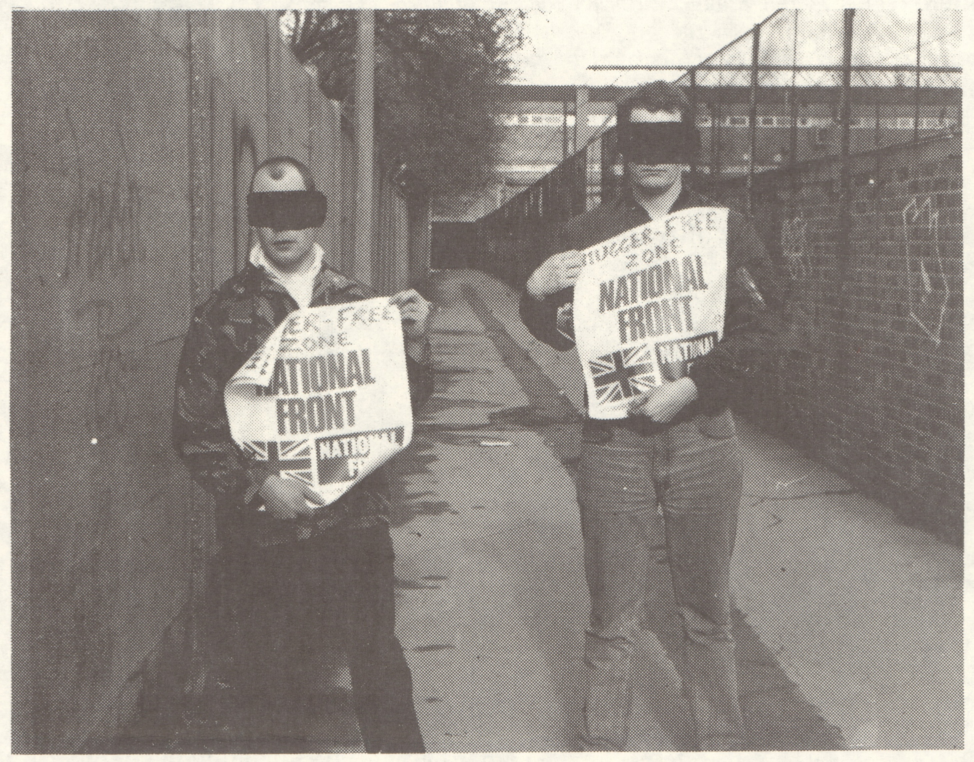
The two Community Activists had stated all along that their only "crime" had been to put up two posters as part of an anti- mugging team.

AGREED

During the case, a "Get Tough With Muggers" poster was displayed to the court. The magistrates agreed with the sentiments of the poster, but obviously did not condone the actions of the accused. The two men defended their stand by telling the court about the ever increasing number of muggings in the area, especially in the town's subways.

As a result of their vigorous and clearly just defence, no fine was imposed. Instead both men were ordered to pay 15 in costs and given a six month conditional discharge.

Although this was reasonably fair, it must be remembered that both men went through the ordeal of being arrested, photographed, finger printed, charged with four charges of criminal damage (with possible prison sentences) and having their homes ransacked by the police. And one of them may still lose his job as a result. So two NF anti- mugging campaigners ended up getting harsher treatment than many muggers. British Justice?



NOTE FROM ONE DEFENDANT

Fortunately I had read Andy MaClorie's article in Nationalism Today on his experience of being arrested, and the advice given in NF News (issue 78) about police repression.

As a result, I remained silent throughout my entire time in police custody. Knowing my rights, I also obtained a duty solicitor.

I believe without any doubt that had I not done this, and if my reply to eight pages of questions had contained any more than "No Comment" the prosecution would not have had to drop the charges. I would have been convicted and jailed for offences that I did not commit.

I can only emphasize the need to read and digest the advice in NFN issue 78. Editor's note. This advice is now available in booklet form from Burning Books for just 50p incl. p&p.

May I add that this experience has only strengthened my resolve to bring down the corrupt system under which people fighting for their community are persecuted. Social Justice can only be restored through a Nationalist Revolution.

If my name was Jeffrey Archer, I would now receive a small sum of money for my troubles, but as it is the police are still keeping an eye on me instead.

The National Front will be holding its traditional Remembrance Day march and rally in central London on Sunday 8th November.

This will take place as usual in spite of the refusal of the Metropolitan Police to answer requests by the NF's ruling Directorate for the normal meetings to finalize the details of the activity. As the police have adopted this short-sighted policy, the National Front will be following the usual arrangements which have made the parade a dignified and peaceful activity for many years.

The march will be led by members of the NF Directorate, including Derek Holland, Graham Williamson, Patrick Harrington and Nick Griffin. A wreath will be laid at the Cenotaph by the Chairman of the National Front's Directorate, Mr. Derek Holland.

Any attempt by the police to interfere with our traditional rights will be rejected. The non-political parade, the short religious service at the Cenotaph, and the political rally at the end of the activity, will all go ahead regardless of possible State bans, police harrassment or violent attacks by Communist thugs.

But such Nationalist defiance is only possible if every National Front supporter is there with us, demonstrating the determination of patriots from England, Scotland, Wales and Ulster to honour the War Dead of our Nations.

OUR FOREFATHERS DIED TO PROTECT OUR FREEDOM – MARCH WITH US TO PROTECT YOURS!
